

Angelic Gifts

Issue 3

Happy New Year

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very Happy New Year, filled with blessings galore for you and your families.

We begin 2013 energized and somewhat exhausted after a rollercoaster ride through the last few months of 2012.

Although we have achieved much, now is the time to push forward and help those around us as we connect with our Angels daily giving thanks and blessings for their help.

What's New

Keep a close eye out for new and upcoming events on Angelic Gifts during 2013. To keep up to date you will find links to my Facebook Page, Twitter etc on my Website, so don't miss a thing. If you don't have a Twitter account you can follow my feed on my website under the Home Page tab.

Coming Soon

Prayer Candle Event

Keep a check on my website for the Next Prayer Candle Event.

Free Angel Cards

Check out the selection of Free Angel Cards on my Website.

Children's Section

New Children's Section coming soon.

Latest Trip News

Over the Christmas / New Year I returned to Ireland and visited Newgrange, Dowth, Knowth and Tara.

Connecting

The trip was a wonderful experience to meet like-minded friends and join with the wonderful energies at these ancient Irish sites.

I really connected with the energies at Dowth - The Fairy Mound of Darkness and some fantastic pictures resulted from a well-spent day there on New Year's Eve.

Photos

I have uploaded the photographs from my visit on Facebook under several albums – you can connect with the energies by opening yourself to the energy of a particular image and focusing on it for a few minutes.

New Children's Section

Due to the great success of Candy & Kane over the Christmas period, I have decided to begin a new section dedicated to Children.

It is still in the early stages so stay tuned in for more information about it.

Prayer Candle Event

I will be reinstating the Prayer Candle Events soon, check in regularly for the next event.

I will post an event on Facebook and invite you all and will post news of each event through Facebook, Twitter and my website.

Thought For Today

Here is a copy of a topic I posted on my blog – Cora's Cloud in July last year.

Sometimes you need to listen and not give advice.

Many people ask me questions about all kinds of things and some seek advice and guidance but today i'd like to ask you all to remember to listen. When your friend wants to ask your advice about something are they just wanting you to agree with their decided opinion? Is your work colleague relating an experience or asking for advice on how they should have handled it?

We can sometimes get too drawn into the situation of offering our advice when it isn't needed. Be there for all who need you but engage in the conversation by listening to their real needs.

Are you practising listening ?

Steps to help :

- Focus on what the individual is saying, give them your full attention.
- Listen to and identify the words they are using.

Do they pause for you to answer? If they are just getting something off their chest, the steps below may help you.

- Give positive feedback and steer them away from negative words/phrases.
- Help them see your side/other side of the conversation.
- Ask them clarifying questions.

Be helpful and positive in your guidance.

Conclusion

Many thanks for tuning in and reading my latest Newsletter, I hope you found it interesting. Please leave any comments you may have on the Feedback Form on the Website. I have chosen a Goddess Card for you all for this Month. Blessings Cora x
