

ANGELIC GIFTS

Newsletter

Issue 2 – September 2012

Dear Angelic Friends, it's been a very busy time for us all during the last few months. I found myself totally enthralled by the Olympics and the Paralympics too. I've found it difficult to pull myself away from all the action. However, we find ourselves in September, already! The children are back at school now and we are all settling down for what I hope will be a peaceful Autumn. I hope you all enjoy this edition of Angelic Gifts Newsletter, blessings Cora x

Cora's Clear Thinking

*"No problem can withstand the assault of sustained thinking."
Voltaire*

Do you find it difficult to keep your Angel/Fairy Cards, candles, crystals etc, tidy and together? Creating a Sacred Space or Altar may help.

Keeping your Angel/Fairy Cards in their original boxes or in bags will help to keep them clean and dust free. Cleanse your cards regularly and reaffirm with your energy.

Cleanse your crystals in clear running water/in the rain or in moonlight (full moon) to keep them in tiptop condition.

See below for Sacred Space/Altar Ideas.

Sacred Space

You can create your Sacred Space/Altar anywhere, inside or outside. I use the top of a small wooden storage unit. See my Sacred Space above. I would suggest you try to use natural materials for this space as it will help to earth the energies. If you wish to cover the area use a clean piece of material and wash it regularly. Keep the area clean and tidy. Items to include in your Sacred Space/altar:

- Candles.
- Angel/Fairy Cards.
- Crystals/Crystal Jewellery.
- Incense.
- Holy Water.
- Statues/Crosses.
- Pictures of loved ones.
- Memorial Cards/Religious Items.
- Prayer Books/Cards.
- Bunch of fresh flowers/potted plants.
- Wish Box, for prayers/wishes and Feathers.
- Small mementos of happy times/memories.

There are many things that you can include and whatever you feel drawn to is perfect for your Sacred Space/Altar.

Please send in pictures of your Sacred Space/Altar to share with us all, I will include them in the next Newsletter.

I would like to share with you a Blog Post I posted in Cora's Cloud back in June this year.

Driver or Passenger ?

Are you engaging with your life or just a passenger ?

Many people say 'I wish I had money, health, friends,' etc 'then I would be happy'. Other say 'If I complete this course or this training then I will know all there is to know about a particular subject. If I can achieve this goal or overcome some difficulty then I will be in control of my life.'

They go through each day of their lives wishing and wanting. Not looking at their life in the present, 'now' and realising the wonders, gifts and joys they have already. They strive forward in a searching way always looking for someone else to tell them how they should feel, react, engage, etc. In his constant search they encounter many other's perspectives and opinions and yet none resonate with them.

Today the Angel's message is to just take a moment, look at what you already have.

Question what is driving you forward ? Ask what is pushing you on, what are you searching for? When you honestly answer these questions for yourself, you will realise you have become a passenger in your own life and it is passing you by.

Engage with your life, it is yours, no one else's - you control all it is, and all it will be, you direct it forward. Do so positively and in the right way for you. You don't need to constantly seek and search because you will find the answers are within you.

Have you found the answers you are searching for? Let us know by leaving a comment below.

Message From Cora

Your Angels are with you constantly. When I ask my Angels for something I know they're working hard on it because they reply by sending me a white feather. You can see some of my feathers in the picture opposite.

Everyday I communicate with my Angel, I believe we have one Guardian Angel who is there to protect and guide us through our lives here on earth. I talk to my Angel every day and ask for her help and assistance all the time, from small trivial things to larger more important tasks. She has never let me down and although I know some of you may be communicating regularly you should know that Divine Timing can take a little longer than you might expect. Sometimes things don't turn out how we expect but try and look at the result and you will see that there is always a reason behind it.
